

The Remnant and Its Mission

“And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ” (Revelation 12:17).

Commitment is an important concept in life.

Commitment is a concept about which the Bible speaks often. The Bible speaks of three mighty men of David (2 Samuel 23:8-12) who were committed to him. They loved David and had one great desire—to make him king. Adino alone slew 800 of the enemy on one occasion. Brave Eleazar, when all the men of Israel fled, defied the Philistines, and the Lord wrought a great victory that day through him. Shammah stood alone in a field of lentils. Though all the others fled, God used totally committed Shammah to gain a great victory. These three men’s hearts were knit together in commitment. God used this loyal remnant of just three men to exalt David.

Throughout history, God has always had a small group of people, a remnant, who have remained faithful to Him.

The remnant theme exists throughout the Bible. Noah’s family formed the first remnant in Scripture. Here, remnant denotes those who are left. Genesis 7:23 says, “Noah only remained _____, and they that were with him in the _____.” Why did God destroy all the wicked and yet save this remnant? Genesis 6:8 says, “Noah found _____ in the eyes of the Lord.” The reason? He did according “to all that God _____ him” (Genesis 6:22).

Obviously, the remnant are saved by God’s grace and remain obedient to Him.

In Abraham, we find another characteristic of the remnant. “Walk before me, and be thou _____” (Genesis 17:1).

Joseph testified that God is the One who preserves the remnant, when he said to his brothers: “God sent me before you to _____ you a posterity in the earth, and to _____ your lives by a great deliverance” (Genesis 45:7).

God gave through Isaiah many warnings of judgment and doom but also hope. “The remnant shall _____, even the _____ of Jacob, unto the _____ God” (Isaiah 10:21).

Jesus taught the remnant theme in the parable of the ten virgins (Matthew 25:1-13), the sower (Mark 4:1-20), the wheat and the tares (Matthew 13:24-43), and the marriage feast (Matthew 22:1-14).

Paul emphasized that “there is a remnant according to the election of _____”
(Romans 11:5).

Revelation gives the clearest picture of God’s last-day remnant.

Points to Ponder

1. How is the devil's hatred of the faithful remnant graphically symbolized in John's vision of Revelation 12?

The pure woman is Christ's church. Satan, the great red dragon, is waiting to devour the church. Verse 17 says that the devil particularly hates this last-day remnant church. Why?

The last phrase gives the clue. The remnant of God's true believers have chosen to follow the same truths Jesus and the apostles taught. And Satan is violently angry.

2. How did Paul describe the falling way from truth?

Paul predicted there would be “falling away” from God’s truth and that the “man of sin” would rise to oppose and exalt himself above God. This deceiver would exalt himself and declare “that he as God sitteth in the _____ of God, shewing himself that he is _____”
(2 Thessalonians 2:4).

3. The ugly history of this mixture of truth and error, lasting for 1260 years during the Dark Ages, is graphically depicted in Revelation 12.

Compare the following biblical position with teachings of the Catholic Church. Do some independent research.

Nuts & Bolts

1. Name at least two factors that led to the Reformation.

_____

2. Name two prominent reformers: _____

3. What three basic biblical truths did the Reformation establish?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

5. The remnant have the faith of Jesus. List three characteristics that show they reflect that faith.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

6. In addition to having the faith of Jesus, what other characteristic does the remnant have? (Revelation 14:12)

_____

7. The remnant are guided by the testimony of Jesus, which is the “_____” of _____” (Revelation 19:10).

8. At the end of the 1260-year prophecy many Christians all over the world recognized that the “_____” of the _____” had come (Daniel 12:4) and began to prepare for Christ’s soon return.

9. Revelation 14:6-12 clearly outlines the mission of the remnant as the preaching of the three angels' message.
10. The First Angel's Message is to preach the " _____ " to all on the earth (Revelation 14:6).
11. This message calls the world to " _____ " God and give Him " _____ " in words and actions. It also warns that the " _____ of his _____ " is come.
12. The message is also a call to " _____ " the Creator on the day that is a memorial to creation, the _____ day _____ (Exodus 20:11).
13. The Second Angel's Message warns against all systems of false worship. Revelation 14:8 states " _____ is fallen." Spiritual Babylon, the enemy of God's people, refers to all apostate religious organizations. Babylon has fallen because she has "made all nations drink of the _____ of the wrath of her _____ ."
- What does the wine of Babylon represent?
_____
  - What is symbolized by fornication?
_____
14. Because many of God's people are still in Babylon's false churches, God is giving a special call in Revelation 18:4: " _____ out of her, my _____ , that ye be not _____ of her _____ ."
15. The Third Angel's Message warns against worshipping the beast and his image (Revelation 14:9-12).
- Who is the beast? Read Revelation 13:1-10. This is a church-state union that ruled the Christian world for centuries. Paul describes it as the " _____ of _____ " (2 Thessalonians 2:3). Daniel called it the " _____ " power (Daniel 7:8 that thought "to _____ times and _____ " (Daniel 7:25). The image of the beast represents a union between church and state to enforce their teachings on others.

Words to Remember

Man of Sin: The beast power—the papal system or Catholic Church.

Arianism: The teaching that Christ the Son was not of the same nature as God the Father.

Purgatory: The Catholic belief that souls who have sinned go to a temporary place of punishment and suffering until they are cleansed for mortal sins forgiven on earth.

Time of the End: Time that begins after the 1260-year prophecy, around A.D. 1798 (Revelation 12:4; Daniel 12:4).

Great Apostasy: Departure from God's truth. Forsaking God's way in preference for human ways.

Mark of the Beast: The mark of the beast represents a symbol of loyalty to Satan in his opposition to God's law. This opposition is to be seen primarily in keeping Sunday as the Sabbath instead of the seventh day. However, Sunday observance becomes the "mark of the beast" only when civil laws enforce it, as is predicted in Revelation 13:15, 17. Only when government laws issue a death decree and enforce a law that no one can buy or sell unless the person submits to the decrees of the "beast power," do we have the "mark" of the beast.

The Difference Between

Paganism and Christianity: Paganism is the worship of many gods. Christianity is the worship of only one God—the Creator of the universe.

The Reformation and the Counter-reformation: The Reformation began when conscientious persons cried out for reforms within the established Catholic Church, such as: following the Bible and the Bible only instead of tradition, salvation by faith alone, abolition of indulgences, denial of papal infallibility, etc. When the Catholic Church failed to respond and instead began persecuting those who called for reforms, the Protestant Church was born.

Counter-reformation is the Catholic reaction to Protestant reformation. It expressed itself mainly in the form of the Jesuit Movement.
